

Dinwiddie County Electoral Board Meeting

October 27, 2023 At 10:00 A. M.

1. Call to Order/Roll Call

The meeting was called to order at 10:00 A.M. C. Worssam Called the roll. All were pre.

2. Prayer/Pledge of Allegiance

The Lord's prayer and Pledge of Allegiance was recited by all.

3. Approval of the Agenda

The chair asked for an approval of the agenda. James Talbot made the motion to approve the agenda.

4. Emergency Delegation of Training to General Registrar

James talbot made a motion to delegate to Ms. Wray the training of Harvey Holloway, Cynthia Wells, Janess Dyer, and Yanette Nichols and the rest of 101 to do one on one training and whatever else is necessary for this election. Ms. Worssam asked Mr. Talbot "What is Ms. Wray's plan and how does she plan to do that? Mr. Talbot's response "I don't care what her schedule is, I just give her....., I make a motion, interruption Ms. Worssam asked, "It is not her schedule, it's the schedule for training". Mr. Talbot, "If we give her the authority to do it, she will make up a schedule to do it. Ms. Worssam, so we know nothing about it? The Electoral Board is responsible for delegated duties the registrar. Mr. Talbot is someone going to second my motion? Ms. Ruffin calls for a second. Ms. Ruffin seconded the motion. Ms. Ruffin called for the vote. Ms. Ruffin and Mr. Talbot voted aye. Ms. Worssam voted Nay and said the reason she is voting Nay is because Ms. Wray allowed an officer of election to work an election without any training. The board was not aware of her decision. Ms. Worssam identified the problem white making rounds at the polling locations on election day.

5. Adjournment

Mr. Talbot made a motion to adjourn the meeting. All voted aye. Meeting adjourned at 10:59 A.M.

Respectively Submitted

Carolyn Worssam, Secretary