Ambulance Aid Subscription is a way to protect you and your loved ones from the unexpected cost of emergency ambulance transport.

The current cost of an emergency ambulance transport in Dinwiddie County can range from $385.00 for BLS service to $575.00 for ALS services plus $8.25 per transported mile. These costs may be covered by your healthcare plan or Medicare, however many times there can be a significant deductible or the transport can be denied payment by the insurance provider. If this occurs or you are uninsured this can leave you with substantial bills from the emergency transport. Ambulance Aid offers you protection from those costs. It will cover you and any other household members for emergency transportation to the hospital for just $29.00 for single household member and $59.00 for a family. This means that an Ambulance Aid Subscription could more than pay for itself in one trip alone. The plan will protect you from January 1, 2010 thru December 31, 2010. The plan is also available to all resident of
