DINWIDDIE COUNTY HIRES RECREATION DIRECTOR

~Brian B. Mancini will report to work on January 3rd, 2007~

DINWIDDIE - County Administrator Kevin Massengill announced today the selection of Brian B. Mancini as the County's new Director of Recreation.

Mr. Mancini is the former Program Coordinator in the recreation department in Goochland County, a position that he held for 6 ½ years. While in Goochland, Mr. Mancini developed and completed Hidden Rock Park, coordinated and organized countless programs and was deeply involved in athletic programs. In July of 2005, Mr. Mancini accepted the position of Center Director of Deep Run Recreation Center for the County of Henrico. In this capacity, Mr. Mancini is responsible for all of the operations and management of this highly successful facility.

"Dinwiddie County is dedicated to providing opportunities for enriching the lives and meeting the recreational needs of Dinwiddie citizens of all ages. Mr. Mancini is an excellent addition to the County's staff and brings a great deal of energy, excitement and sound experience to this position. As we continue to grow and prosper, I remain positive that Brian will be able to maintain and develop new facilities and programs that our citizens want and demand." stated, Kevin Massengill.

Mr. Mancini will report to work on January 3, 2007 at the Eastside Community Enhancement Center and can be reached Monday –Friday from 8:30am – 5:00pm (804.732-1100)
